

Source: Liverpool Echo {Main}
Edition:
Country: UK
Date: Monday 30, September 2013
Page: 16
Area: 56 sq. cm
Circulation: ABC 74984 Daily
Ad data: page rate £7,888.00, scc rate £39.15
Phone: 0151 227 2000
Keyword: Felix Dennis

durrants
Gorkana Group

Felix cuts a dash at Epstein

POET Felix Dennis returns to Liverpool as part of his biggest poetry tour ever – covering the UK, Ireland and the Continent.

The 66-year-old, who numbers Sir Paul McCartney among his fans, previously brought his Did I Mention The Free Wine? show to the city three years ago.

This time he is appearing at the Epstein (Neptune) theatre with the Cut-Throat Tour to celebrate the launch of his seventh book of verse, Love, Of a Kind.

The tour takes its title from Felix being diagnosed with throat cancer last year.

Surgeons miraculously saved his stage voice but fans will, however, note the 'Bearded Dwarf' has lost his trademark beard to radiotherapy and is now as skinny as a catwalk model.

● Felix Dennis brings The Cut-Throat Tour to the Epstein Theatre in Hanover Street on October 11 from 7pm.

Tickets are £28 with £9 concessions, including wine, on 0844 888 4411.

